MORE MACKEREL.

Several Seiners Make Hauls on Middle Bank Yesterday.

PRISCILLA SMITH 27,000 FRESH.

Two Arrivals of Salt Mackerel at This Port To-day.

There are several good trips of mackerel both at this port and at Boston to-day, which shows that the fish are not all pecked out as yet. Some of the seiners made some fine hauls of fresh mackerel on Middle Bank yesterday, and immediately marketed their fares fresh at Boston.

Sch. Priscilla Smith, Capt. William B. Corkum, has the banner trip of the day, arriving at Boston last evening with a fine trip of 27,000 fresh mackerel, and about 25 barrels of salt mackerel. The fresh mackerel were nearly all secured in one haul on Middle Bank yesterday afternoon, and sold for 7 cents at the wharf, which will give the schooner, her skipper and crew a fine stock and share. The fish were secured by setting around the vessel.

At the same time that the Smith made her haul, the sch. Amos Cutter secured 50 bbls., which she marketed at Boston, and the sch. Hiram Lowell, 20 bbls.

There are two good trips of salt mackerel at this port to-day. The sch. Grayling, Capt. Reuben Cameron, arrived last night with a trip of 185 bbls. secured off Chatham in a haul of a week ago, while sch. Hattie A. Heckman, Capt. Joseph Smith, came in this forenoon with a fine trip of 225 bbls. of salt mackerel, and 10 bbls. of fresh. The salt were secured off Chatham last week, and the few fresh in the school on Middle Bank yesterday.

The netters also secured a few fish last night, which were sold at the Fort at 7-1-2 cents apiece.

A despatch from Halifax, dated yesterday says that the Gloucester fishing schooners which have been calling at North Sydney for supplies, report an unusually plentiful catch of mackerel, one schooner having already taken as high as 400 barrels.

The last named vessel is probably the sch. Victor, Capt. John McFarland, before reported.

Good Money in Herring.

It is estimated the Gloucester, Newburyport and Ipswich boats together caught over 1000 barrels of herring at Ipswich last Thursday. Edward Wells secured 300 barrels. They are brought to this city and the fishermen clear $1 per barrel on the fish.

Big Halibut at Portsmouth.

The sloop Hooper came into Portsmouth Friday morning with the largest halibut on board caught in that vicinity for years. The big fish was caught by H. Slavin nine miles southeast of the Isles of Shoals. It weighed 275 pounds.
